○ Weekly Summary

Last week, we decided not to proceed with our client, and we came up with another project idea. We attended a meeting with Fila Nicholas D, and we merged groups 38 and 39.

○ Past week accomplishments

- Mohammed Abdalgader: Worked on report 3 and attended a meeting with Dr.Fila
- Hunter Barton: Helped build project proposal with mockups, requirements, and deliverables layed out.
- Perry Ports: Worked on brainstorming and presenting our new project idea.
- Tabe Ekpombang: Contributed to brainstorming and presenting our new project idea.
- Hongwei Wang: Meet with the professor, write a thankful email to the former clients to thank them for choosing, and let us participate in the project before.
- Adin Huric: Meet with professor to speak about new project proposal.
- Dino Huric: Met with the new team and the professor to guide us with our new project.

- Comments and extended discussion (Optional)
Feel free to discuss non-technical issues related to your project.
- Plans for the upcoming week
 - Hunter Barton: I plan on creating a POC of a monorepo with React and Nodejs with some of the benefits and drawbacks layed out. Additionally I'm going to start writing up some epics for the upcoming features.
 - Mohammed Abdalgader: I plan to help create the UI and design the UML diagram for the project.
 - Perry Ports: I will create design requirements for a part of the final project, so we can know exactly what needs to be done for our deliverable.
 - Tabe Ekpombang: Brainstorm new ideas to help grow the project and contribute in creating design requirements.

- Adin Huric: Understand new project and its requirements and also think of new ideas that we could implement to this project.
- Hongwei: Because I learned about this project on Wednesday, I will fully understand the project and the requirements. Also create more useful requirements in the project.
- Dino Huric: Continue to brainstorm ideas for the project. Get our presentation ready for our lighting talk and make sure we all know what we will go over during the presentation.

- Summary of weekly advisor meeting

We gathered with Professor Fila and discussed moving forward with a new project that improves the experience of students finding and creating clubs. We will reorganize our focus around this and will also be merging with team 39. We likely will change our advisor to team 39's away from our original advisor. We did not meet with our original advisor this week for lack of a project to discuss.
